Hoover Favored In Early Indiana Election Reports

LIGHT FARM VOTE HURTS OPPOSITION

Californian Battles Senator Watson for 33 Delegates to Kansas City

BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT Result to Furnish Insight Into Agriculture States Attitude on Cabinet Man

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 8.—A heavy vote was being polled in the Indiana primary election today in cities in all parts of the state, according to reports here. Reports from rural sections, however, indicated that the farm vote was light. These reports caused satisfaction among supporters of Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover, as it was conceded that the greatest strength of Senator James Watson, Hoover's opponent for the Republican presidential candidacy, is in the rural districts. The balloting will determine whether Indiana's 33 votes in the Republican national convention shall go to Hoover or to Watson, favorite son candidate. Will Decide Corruption Issue Of hardly less importance will be Indiana's decision on the corruption issue—a decision which will show the electorate's own opinion of the scandals which have rocked the state. The third paramount result of today's balloting will concern farm relief. Indiana is a solid agricultural state and its choice between Hoover and Watson, the latter a champion of farm relief, will furnish a significant insight into the agricultural middle west's attitude toward Hoover. Up to the last minute of the campaign, the rival Hoover and Watson camps have been confident of victory. The Hoover forces were lined up against what long has been one of the most highly efficient political machines in the United States. Watson's supporters are confident the senator will carry his home state by a greater majority than he did in the senatorial election of 1926, when he received approximately 160,000 votes. See Big Hoover Margin Oscar Foellinger, of Fort Wayne, Hoover's manager in the state, believes the secretary of commerce's margin of victory will be between 75,000 and 100,000 votes. Watson's stronghold, it is conceded, is in the southern part of the state. Few politicians believed he would experience any trouble.

PRINCE CAROL OF RUMANIA TO BE DEPORTED FROM ENGLAND

Britain Foils Plan To Visit Home Country

Prevented from Making Air Journey for Purpose of Issuing Manifestos

LONDON, May 8.—Prince Carol of Rumania, who had made plans to fly back to his fatherland and distribute manifestos saying he was ready to assume the throne he one time renounced, will be requested to leave England, it was learned today. Officials of the foreign office and the home office decided to request Carol to leave and the Daily Express today said that a Scotland Yard officer had served Carol with the deportation order. Carol has been visiting England for the last week or so, remaining at Godstone, Surrey. Yesterday it was announced officially that British authorities had learned Carol planned to fly from the Croydon airfield, Saturday, to Rumania and distribute manifestos announcing his willingness to assume the throne held by his son, King Michael. The British prevented Carol from making this flight, it was announced, on the grounds he did not have the necessary papers to land in Rumania.

Rigid Censorship Placed On Rumanian News

By ROBERT H. BEST VIENNA, May 8.—A rigid censorship prevented the leakage of any news from Rumania, today, except official announcements, confounding rumors of an impending crisis and reports of peasants marching on Bucharest. The censorship was supplemented by the arrest of representatives of several newspapers serving outside newspapers and news agencies. Other newspapers have been warned that arrest will follow.

Longworth pointed out that the measure was on the house program while Tilson said the matter would be considered by the house steering committee. Representative Swing, Republican, California, co-author of the measure, said he was much encouraged. The conference was executive.

Coolidge was not injured in the accident, although his roadster turned over on top of him and he had to be extricated by passing motorists. Vinson suffered a deep gash in his right arm.

RITCHIE TELLS COMMITTEE HE ISN'T IN RACE

Making No Effort to Obtain Nomination, Maryland Governor Says

BY PAUL R. MALLON (United Press Staff Correspondent) BALTIMORE, Md., May 8.—Gov. Albert C. Ritchie, of Maryland, told the senate campaign investigating committee today he does not expect to win the Democratic presidential nomination and will do nothing to get it. "I would be delighted if it came my way, although I do not expect it," Ritchie said in a 10-minute hearing held in his business office on the tenth floor of a bank building here. Ritchie said he had no campaign fund and did not expect to have any. The senators sat around Ritchie's desk as they questioned him about his candidacy, for which purpose they motored over from Washington this morning. Questions Candidacy Suggestion At the outset Ritchie questioned the suggestion that he was a candidate, although Democrats of Maryland, in their primary, yesterday, authorized a delegation to be selected to instruct him. "I don't know that you can call me a candidate any more than

BANK BANDITS GET $15,000 IN INDIANA

ANGOLA, Ind., May 8.—Seven well dressed bandits today robbed the First National bank here of $15,000. The robbers entered the town at 3 a. m., and went directly to the home of E. F. Croxton, president of the bank, roused him from his bed and forced him to accompany them to the bank. Baffled by a time lock, they calmly sat down to wait, conversing with the bank president for five hours until D. B. Goodale, cashier, entered at 8 o'clock. Promptly forcing Goodale to manipulate the time lock, the bandits swept up the money and then sped eastward.

Charles Jackson, suspended head of the police vice department, today appeared before the board of police commissioners and denied charges of inefficiency and neglect, preferred against him by Chief of Police James Davis. W. G. Knox Is Appointed New City Manager

Resigns Santa Ana Council Position to Succeed E. B. Collier

W. G. KNOX, representing the third ward on the city council, last night was appointed city manager to succeed E. B. Collier, resigned. Knox accepted the appointment and immediately resigned as councilman. His successor on the city body will be appointed by the council later. The appointee at present is identified with the Orange county flood control district, having an important position in that organization, establishment of land values and maintenance of records in connection with lands involved in the flood control plans being part of his duties. He was engaged today in cleaning up work in his office at flood control headquarters preparatory to assuming his new duties tomorrow. Having served the city as engineer from March, 1922, to March, 1925, and having been a member of the city council since April of last year, Knox will assume his new position well equipped with knowledge of city affairs, his friends point out.

Active Part in City Affairs In his capacity as city engineer, Knox attended every meeting of the council for three years and entered actively into discussions on business affairs of the city. He left the office of city engineer of his own choice, to establish himself in private practice. He recently sold his business to J. L. McBride, another member of the council. His business and engineering experience.

KNAPP CASE GIVEN JURY IN NEW YORK

ALBANY, N. Y., May 8.—A jury of 13 men, selected from among the electorate which elevated Mrs. Florence E. B. Knapp to the highest office ever held by a woman in New York state, began deliberating at 12:51 p. m., today, on whether she had betrayed her trust. The charge on which the former woman executive was tried was that "with intent to steal" she had ordered, $278.94 of state funds paid to her stepdaughter, Clara Blanche Knapp, and took the money he left.

Congestion in the various offices in the Orange county courthouse resulted today in a suggestion by Col. S. H. The board discussed the suggestion this afternoon and considered the possibility of erecting one unit of the proposed structure between the courthouse and hall of records.

Believe Canned Heat Containers Point Trail To Slayer

A clew to the murderer of Emil Von Hasenell, 63, service station proprietor, of First and Mabury streets, who was shot and killed Sunday night by a holdup man, presented itself today to Santa Ana police in the form of two empty canned heat cans and an eight-ounce bottle containing a pink fluid. The cans and bottle were found buried in the loose earth in the orange grove north of the service station, from where the bandit emerged before the holdup and into which he disappeared after leaving Von Hasenell lying mortally wounded in front of his place of business. Could Watch Station The cans and bottle were found at a point in the grove where

Protection Of Nationals Only Japanese Aim

To Recall Troops as Soon As Emergency Passes, U. S. Assured

By MAURITZ A. HALLGREN (United Press Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, May 8.—Complete evacuation of Tainan by Chinese Nationalist troops and their withdrawal from the 230-mile route of the Tainan-Tsingtao railway was demanded in a Japanese ultimatum handed General Chiang Kai Shek, national commander, according to advices received here today from Peking. This information, attributed to Japanese sources, said the ultimatum was delivered to Chiang in Tainan yesterday. The dispatches did not mention what time limit had been set on the order. The ultimatum, among other things, demanded the disarming of certain "guilty" Chinese units, the withdrawal of all Chinese troops from a zone 20 li (about six miles) on either side of the Tainan-Tsingtao railway and around the settlement of Tainan, and the disarming of all other troops who may remain within the limits of this zone.

Report Fighting Resumed The dispatches also said that reports had been received in Peking of renewed fighting between Chinese and Japanese troops. Japanese Ambassador Matsudaira today personally assured Secretary of State Kellogg that the movement of Japanese troops into Shantung was only for the purpose of protecting the lives and property of foreigners and had no other meaning. He was said also to have repeated the promise made in Tokyo on April 18, that the military force would be withdrawn as soon as the emergency passed.

The ambassador's assurances that the military move simply is a protective measure probably will make unnecessary a proposed American inquiry as to the purpose of the movement, it was said later. It had been planned originally, officials said, to have Ambassador MacVoght, in Tokyo, make the inquiry. Agreed Not to Intervene Under the 1922 Washington nine-power treaty, which became effective in 1924, the Japanese and other foreign governments inter-

VIOLENCE MARKS MISSOURI VOTING

KANSAS CITY, May 8.—Acts of violence and kidnapping featured the joint city and county $31,000, 000 special bond election in Jackson county today. Six persons were kidnapped and carried away from voting places and several others were attacked, but managed to escape their assailants. Many sluggings and intimidation of precinct workers was reported to police, who posted extra guards in the vicinity of every precinct in the city where trouble was looked for. Justice Frank Benanti was the only victim of kidnappers who suffered severe mistreatment. He was beaten and carried away in an automobile containing three masked men.

Ford, Back Home, Sees Continued U. S. Prosperity

NEW YORK, May 8.—Continued prosperity in the United States was predicted by Henry Ford when with Mrs. Ford the automobile magnate travelled on the liner as an confident that current prosperity in the United States will continue," Ford said. "The business outlook is good and there is no factor in sight to disturb it. With Mrs. Ford, the automobile magnate travelled on the liner as "Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robinson," but the magnate merely was a pleasant subterfuge that had no effect in concealing his identity from the passengers. Regarding production of the Ford Motor company, Ford said about 1,000,000 orders were on hand and that production was being increased as fast as possible to meet the demand. TSINAN AREA AGAIN SCENE OF BITTER FIGHT BETWEEN NIPPONESE AND CANTONESE

Appropriation of Tsingtao Line Seen as Virtual Declaration of War With Southern Government

ORDER NATIONALISTS LEAVE

By D. C. BESS United Press Staff Correspondent

PEKING, May 8.—(8:10 p. m.)—The gravest move in recent Chinese history was made today when Japan formally announced the seizure of the Tsingtao-Tsinan railway, in Shantung, where Nationalist troops are driving toward Peking. The seizure was regarded by foreign military observers here as a virtual declaration of war. Simultaneously with the announcement came news that fighting had recommenced at Tsinan, between Nationalists and the 3000 Japanese troops defending the foreign quarter. It was announced officially that "Nationalist aggression" had compelled "offensive measures."

When fighting was resumed, dispatches said, the Japanese expeditionary forces destroyed the Chinese barracks with explosives and delivered an ultimatum demanding immediate evacuation of Tsinan and a zone extending for seven miles each side of the Tsinan-Tsingtao railway. The Nationalist troops, it was reported, have taken the offensive against the Japanese forces. Intervention Long Hinted Japanese intervention in China long has been hinted at. Japan has tremendous interests in Shantung and Manchuria. Chang Tso-Lin, Manchurian "war lord," who is in command of the northern forces, has been friendly to Japan. Intervention would aid him. There had been no grave international incident in China prior to the outbreak of fighting last week at Tsinan since the Nanking incident of March 24, 1927, when Hunanese troops of the advancing Nationalist armies took the town and attacked foreign residents, including Americans. U. S. Minister John Van A. MacMurray only a few weeks ago effected a friendly settlement of the incident with the Nationalist government, whose headquarters are in Nanking. Comparatively Minor Affair The Nanking incident, however, was a comparatively minor affair compared with today's seizure of the railway, constituting physical intervention in Chinese affairs on a big scale. In Nanking, the action of foreign soldiers was defensive

ATTORNEYS FOR HICKMAN SCORE INSANITY LAW

Walsh and Colleagues Open Supreme Court Battle To Save Fox

(By United Press) SACRAMENTO, May 8.—Attacking the new California law permitting the murderer to plea "not guilty by reason of insanity," attorneys for William Edward Hickman, slayer of Marion Parker, of Los Angeles, today launched their fight before the state supreme court to save Hickman from the gallows. Hickman was represented by Jerome Walsh, of Kansas City, chief counsel; Richard Cantillon and Frank Slevens, of Los Angeles. Slevens, in presenting the alleged mistakes in judicial procedure of Hickman's trial, contended that the chairman of the state judicial council should have appointed the presiding judge at the trial and that Hickman should have had an opportunity of challenging the last juror, which was denied him. The provisions of the state law permitting the plea of not guilty by reason of insanity are unconstitutional, he contended.

TOKIO, May 2.—One hundred thousand Nationalists have started an attack on Japanese troops at Tsinan and General Chiang Kai-Shek, the Nationalist leader, has led to Tsinan. Niichi-Nichi was advised today. The Chinese general, according to advice to the newspaper, fled when he found he was unable to control his troops.

Severe fighting is continuing in Tsinan, the Asahi Shimbun Tientsin correspondent reports. Communication between Tsinan and Tientsin has been severed.

The Japanese in Tsinan are greatly outnumbered.
Some Japanese reinforcements were said to be enroute to China today. Eleven destroyers and two torpedo flotillas were due to leave from Sasebo this morning.
Six armored planes already are enroute from Ping Yang for Tsingtao.

Shanghai Believes Hostilities Ceasing

SHANGHAI, May 2.—Belief was expressed here that hostilities between Japanese troops and Chinese Nationalist soldiers, at Tsinan, were ceasing after mediation by British and American consuls.

It was understood that some Chinese troops had been removed from the Tsinan commercial area and an unconfirmed report said the Japanese had issued an ultimatum to General Chiang Kai-Shek to withdraw his troops to a distance of seven miles from the beleaguered city.

Correspondent Reports Latest Clash Ended

TOKIO, May 2.—The Tientsin correspondent of the Manchester Guardian advised that the latest clash between Japanese and Chinese troops at Tsinan-Pu ended at 11 o'clock Monday night, with the Japanese well in control of the situation.

A few scattered snipers continued to menace the situation, the dispatch said.

The Japanese casualties were believed to be about 20 dead with about 30 missing. Nearly 1000 Chinese have been taken prisoners, the dispatch said.
Japanese soldiers said many civilians had been killed.

Senator Barkley, Democrat, Kentucky, asked if there was any agreement whereby the Ritchie delegates would go to another candidate. Reports had been circulated that the Ritchie delegation is strong for Gov. Al Smith.

Ritchie replied that the delegates would not be selected officially until the state convention May 22 and it would be impossible to answer such a question until then.

Doesn't Expect Dry Aid
Senator McMaster, Republican, South Dakota, pointed out that Ritchie is a renowned wet and asked if he expected any support from either the Anti-Saloon league or those organizations opposed to prohibition.

"I never received any help from the league in the past," Ritchie replied dryly, "and I don't expect it now."

Reed Reveals Spending Between $1200 and $1500

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Senator James Reed, of Missouri, told the senate investigating committee today he had spent between $1200 and $1500 traveling expenses in his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Reed said he had no other personal expenditures and had received only a $25 check.

"I have made no promises to any one and I think a man is a scoundrel who would," Reed said. "I know of no expenditures of other candidates except statements which I would not want to repeat. I haven't a charge to make against any one." Secretary of Commerce Hoover notified the senate campaign expenditures committee today that he would appear to testify at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

Completing college, Knox, a civil engineer, went to work for the Rock Island railway and, during his eight years' service with the company, had wide experience in railroad engineering problems in many of the middle western states.

Served As Mining Engineer
Later he served as mining engineer with the Kemmerer Coal company, in Wyoming. Due to the climatic conditions, Knox resigned his position with the coal company and accepted the post of assistant city engineer in Salt Lake City, remaining there for six years. His next employment was with the state road commission of Utah, where he served as district engineer and had charge of construction and maintenance of highways in the five southern counties.

the service station and any activity around it can be seen, L. C. Rogers, chief of police, declared, and Rogers is of the opinion that the bandit, described as a youthful Mexican, watched from this point until he saw Von Hasselein gather up his money, put his machine in a nearby garage and then return to the station.

While waiting in the grove, Rogers thinks, the murderer mixed the canned heat with some kind of fluid he carried in the bottle and was intoxicated by the time he staged the holdup.

Because few Mexicans ever drink a concoction of canned heat, Rogers believes the clew a valuable one and has started his investigation along this line, he said. "In all our records we have found very few Mexicans arrested for drinking canned heat," he said today.

Sure It Was Mexican
Von Hasselein was sure that it was a Mexican that shot him, he told physicians just before he died. He gave police a description of the man which tallies almost perfectly with the description of a man who purchased two containers of canned heat in a Santa Ana drug store at 3:30 p. m., Sunday, police declared.

Police also have the bullets taken from Von Hasselein's body and have identified them with a certain make of pistol.
An inquest into the death of Von Hasselein has been called for this afternoon, in the Smith and Tutthill funeral parlors, where the body was taken. John Martel, acting coroner, will be in charge. Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Smith Sure Of Four Delaware Delegates

WILMINGTON, Del., May 2.—Gov. Alfred E. Smith won four and possibly six more votes in the Democratic national convention with the selection of the six delegates from this state today.

acted in China agreed never to intervene in China except when necessary to protect lives and property of their nationals.

It was suggested that if Japan now is interested only in protecting its 12,000 nationals in Shan-tung, the question of intervention would not be involved.

Dispatches from China, saying Japan announced it had seized the Tientsin-Tsinan railway, at first were interpreted in official quarters here as a step beyond mere protection.

The state department lacks unbiased information concerning the Tsinan battle and its causes. While some officials felt that undisciplined Chinese troops may have precipitated the fighting, others thought it "peculiar" that the Japanese troops should first have sought to destroy the Chinese wireless station in Tsinan, thus cutting off Chinese communication.

Jerome Walsh, chief counsel, was to conclude the arguments for Hickman this afternoon.

OFFICERS MAKE REPORTS AT CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE MEETING HERE THIS MORNING

Pandora was chosen this morning as the conference city for next year. Approximately 250 delegates and ministers had registered by noon at the conference here.

Reports from the treasurer, moderator and superintendent featured the forenoon session today of the forty-second annual conference of Congregational churches of Southern California being held here in the First Congregational church.

Fred M. Wilcox, conference treasurer, revealed in his report that Ononta Community (Congregational) in per capita giving to benevolence leads all other communities in the district having over 500 members. With 303 members, contributions by members for 1927 totaled $495.02, or $1.35 per member. Steve Madro leads the same group of churches in the per capita amount for home expenses, with $21.28 per member. This, it was explained, was due to a building campaign which has been successfully completed under its pastor, Dr. Pritchard.

The total benevolent contributions for the year from all churches in the conference was $124,409.85, or $7.00 more than was apportioned. The largest church in the conference is the First of Los Angeles, with 1850 members, closely followed by Long Beach with 1474 members. Thirty-five churches have a membership of 200 or more. The treasurer announced a balance of $9,822.77 on hand at the end of the fiscal year.

Among other recommendations made by Dr. Gardner, moderator, was that which concerns the fidelity of church support, as follows: "We need uniformity of procedure in the admission of members, in the service expected of them, and in the conditions on which alone their names can be retained on our membership roll. We ought not to have a lower standard of membership than the service club, men and women, on joining clubs, agree to regular attendance and the elimination of their names if they fail to reach a minimum, unless hindered by sickness or absence from home. Pledges and oaths should be made not accepted as excuses. They also agree to minimum dues, which do not necessarily include benevolence. But in our churches we have no standards. I know a group of churches where the per capita giving is as follows: (a) 24 cents, (b) 28 cents, (c) 40 cents, (d) 77 cents, (e) $1.14. The social status of the people is almost identical. In service clubs every member is expected to take office when called upon. And he is committed to friendliness, loyalty, cooperation, character building. I urge that these principles should be made the uniform requirement of our churches."

High lights in the report of Suppt. George F. Kenngott, were as follows: "We reported this year 3,427 absent out of a total of 26,930, while last year we reported 2,193 absent in a total membership of 26,306. The additions on 'Confession' were 1,112, total 3,023, showing that 1,916 were received by letter. This shows that our churches are reaping the rewards of work done elsewhere, but we are not receiving into our membership as largely as we should. From our church training and Christian nurture through Sunday schools. According to the Congregational year book of 1926, Massachusetts, numbering 603 churches, received on 'Confession' 6,627, and by letter 4,890, making a total of 11,517, on the basis of a total membership of 161,714, with 20,531 absentees. Many Removals
 "Last year our churches reported removals, as follows: By death, 342; letter, 918; total, 1,260. That means 1,144 were otherwise removed. That makes a serious situation for our churches, to have lost one-half of their removals by revision of the roll. This is accounted for largely by the mobility of our population. It may be in part due to lack of careful and continuous pastoral oversight. In Massachusetts for 1926, 2,083 were removed by death; 2,737 by letter; 8,065 by revision of the roll, making a total of 12,925.
 "When members remove from the community, they should be followed up promptly and given letters of dismission to churches, preferably Congregational, in the new community where they reside, with letters to pastors of churches therein, so that these persons may be followed up promptly. The Congregational office has done considerable as a clearing house, and is ready to render the largest possible assistance to the pastors in following up these removals.

 "The conference at Redlands last year, voted to instruct the directors to endeavor to raise $30,000.00 per year as an extra, over and above the apportionment, for the next five years for new work in the conference as recommended by the conference.
 "Meetings have been held at Riverside, Claremont, San Diego and Los Angeles for the presentation to groups of Congregationalists of the need and opportunity for the wise use of such funds. Various suggestions have been made as to the raising and spending of the funds. An honored layman, who has pledged generously to the fund, suggests a 'Foundation' with a small and rather permanent committee for the investment of the receipts as a 'revolving fund,' to be loaned to new churches for the purchase of a site and the erection of the first unit, with a small interest charge. If the conference could have such a committee, doubtless funds would be received increasingly in the future, not only through outright gifts, but on conditional gifts on an annuity basis and through legacies."
 Dr. Brown Speaks
 In his address at the opening session of the conference at the First Congregational church yesterday afternoon, Dr. Robert E. Brown, pastor of the First Congregational church of Oakland, speaking on the subject, "That the Nation May Know," made an appeal for the missionary enterprise. He said this apostrophe for an out-propagating Christianity seems necessary in view of the derogatory and cynical views of missions held by many present day commercial and industrial leaders.
 "Trader Horn's belittling of David Livingstone in his story of his life, can best be counteracted by the vigorous and cogent presentation of the romance of missions," Dr. Brown said. "No nobler record of lofty adventure has ever been written than that indited by heroic and sacrificing American missionaries during the periods of discovery, colonization and pioneering in this country. Now we have reached the comic period in missions. The nation should be informed that the scope of evangelization is not the conducting of a confirmation class in sectarian theology. Rather it is a university, extending its influence to all the earth. All that is best in social life, all that is enriching in education, all that belongs to the field of bodily healing—all these inhere by right to Christianity and should be manifested in its missionary enterprise. As men's motives commercially have changed during the past fifty years, so has the motive of Christianity changed, until it embraces all that concerns the welfare of man, both physical and spiritual."
 In place of the Rev. Herbert C.

idea of Redlands, who was prevented from speaking on account of serious illness, a substitute was called in the person of Dr. Albert Peel, of London, who is editor of the Congregational quarterly and happens to be on this coast to fill a lecture appointment at the Berkeley School of Religion. Dr. Peel, addressing himself to the theme, "That the World May Know," registered his conviction that Christianity will never be commended to mankind until the things of God and Christ for which Christians stand shall be lived but most definitely and arrestingly in their lives. He said that when the world sees Christian values shining out in the characters of those who profess Christianity, then, and not till then, will the world appraise Christianity at its true worth and accept it as an invaluable asset.

Memorial Service
 Brief words of appreciation of the life and service of the following ministers, who have passed away during the year, were spoken by friends during the memorial service:

The Rev. William Harsenape, by Rev. James D. Eaton; the Rev. E. F. Howlett and Rev. Ignacio Lopez, by Rev. Luther Freeman; the Rev. W. C. Merritt, by Rev. William Ewing; the Rev. James H. McLaren, by Rev. W. H. Hopkins; the Rev. H. T. Staats, by Rev. J. J. Jones; the Rev. W. C. Wilcox, by Rev. T. L. Dyer; the Rev. F. C. Neils and A. M. Robbins, by Supt. Geo. F. Kenngott; the Rev. Theodore Schauer, by Dr. John Gardner; and the Rev. C. R. Shatto, by Rev. C. L. Knight.

The afternoon session closed with a vesper service, at which the Rev. E. E. Day, of Whittier, preached the conference sermon. His theme, "The Christian Motive," was based upon the soul-reaching impact of Jesus. "Take heed that ye do not your righteousness before men to be seen of them; else ye have no reward with your Father who is in heaven."
 "The mainspring of the Christian's action must ever be a deep and genuine interest in the welfare of his fellow creatures, quite irrespective of whether men know that he is laboring for them or not," the Rev. Mr. Day said. "Statistics of conversions, records of financial gain and outward marks of a successful pastorate are apt to be so many stumbling-blocks in the path of the average minister. With the motive that of fixed loyalty to Jesus and a burning desire to bless men, the mechanics of the profession will assume second place in the clergyman's life."

The conference banquet was enjoyed in the spacious and beautiful auditorium of the Eboli club, and at its conclusion a few moments were devoted to sparkling toasts briefly proposed by five of those present, at the behest of Dr. Gardner, the toastmaster.
 Evening Session
 The evening session was given up to two addresses, that of the moderator and one by the Rev. Charles F. Aked, D. D., of Los Angeles. Dr. Gardner deeply moved his hearers with a fervid appeal that they might be mindful, as Congregationalists, of a two-fold priceless privilege and achievement.
 "First Congregationalism has never recoiled from the steady and relentless advance of thought, but has marched abreast of every contribution to the intelligence of the age," he said. Thought is the most terrific social dynamite in the world. But the children of the Pilgrim faith have welcomed its every offer, and stand today free from the shackles of a binding and outworn theological tradition. And "Not in Panama but in Cuba was the canal built, for it was in the latter place that such heroes as Drs. Reed, Carrol and Lazar, and Privates Kinsinger and Moran fought the ghastly plague of yellow fever which had up to that time frustrated every effort to build the inter-oceanic waterway," Dr. Aked said. "Offering their bodies to the deadly bite of the germ-laden mosquito, some of these heroes and heroines died to learn the facts with which science might combat the disease. Others, with bodies broken and constitution impaired, lived on in weakness, their sacrifice only too meagerly recognized by the American people. All such are on the role of fame, with countless others, who prove the divine stuff out of which our humanity is made."

Much of beauty and grace was added to the services of both afternoon and evening, by the singing of Miss Ola E. Blair, director of the Santa Ana church choir. Her solos were "Spirit of God," by Neidlinger and "Love Never Fails," by Root.

Committees as follows were appointed by the moderator at the afternoon session: Resolutions, the Rev. Albert P. Davis, William A. Schwimley and Mrs. Allen. Business, the Rev. W. W. Scudder, A. S. Donat and Mr. C. E. Spaulding. Credentials, the Rev. A. D. Stauffacher, F. O. Wyatt and C. L. Knight.

C. F. Rose, Santa Ana, was fined $2 in police court yesterday on a charge of parking his machine between 2 a. m. and 5 a. m. on a city street.

MANY UNABLE TO GET INTO HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM TO HEAR "H. M. S. PINAFORE"

By RUTH ANDREWS

Secretary S. A. Music Week Committee

Presentation of "H. M. S. Pinafore," favorite Gilbert and Sullivan light opera, last night in Santa Ana High School auditorium by music departments of Santa Ana High school and Junior college, under Miss Myrtle A. Martin's capable direction, was a magnificent success, and ample proof of widespread interest in Santa Ana's Music Week celebration. The auditorium was packed to capacity, all available standing room filled throughout a performance lasting over two hours, many being turned away.

Cordially welcoming citizens, Mr. Joseph Porter offered much excellent comedy, also fine solo work. Carl Jassac was an impressive, dignified Captain Corcoran; Roger Hearn as Ralph Rackstraw immediately enlisted the audience's romantic sympathies, while Clarence Ranney as Dick Deadeye, with ridiculous antics and ominous prophecies furnished many unique touches of humor.

Both solo work and excellently rendered duos and trios were dramatically effective, while choral ensembles, attractively costumed, composed of over one hundred students, were especially fine, evidencing careful, tireless training by Miss Martin, and her assistants, Miss Helen McCartney and Frances Hunt Benson, with Charles Haas as student assistant. Especially colorful and picturesque was the attractive ladies chorus, flower-like in dainty Colonial costumes.

Tonight a typically brilliant symphonic concert will be presented at the auditorium by Santa Ana Symphony orchestra, with D. C. Cianfoni, director. Ensemble numbers will be offered by Santa Ana Cantando club, while soloists

CANTANDO CLUB AND ORCHESTRA WILL BE HEARD

Continuing the local Music week celebration, Santa Ana Symphony orchestra, directed by D. C. Cianfoni, will be heard tonight at Santa Ana high school auditorium at 8:00 p. m. in a brilliant and appealing program.

The Cantando Chorus, with Leon Eckles, director, will be heard, also two soloists, Miss Georgia Belle Walton, violin, and Dorothy Dula, piano, both to be accompanied by the orchestra.

A featured number of tonight's program will be the "Capriccio Espagnole" by N. Rimsky-Korsakoff, a typically vivid number, composed of five movements, a caprice founded on Spanish themes. Published in 1887, this composition has elicited much praise, being termed by Tchaikowsky a "celestial masterpiece of instrumentation."

It was dedicated by the composer to artists composing the orchestra of the Imperial Russian Opera House of Petrograd.

The first movement, or Alborada, is a morning serenade, its chief theme wild and tempestuous, given by the full orchestra. A subsidiary theme for wood wind instruments is followed by solo clarinet, with delicate violin cadenza.

The second movement, Variations, is what its name implies, interestingly calling into play varied instrumentation, being followed by the third movement, an alborada, a transposition of the first movement, with different instrumentation, solo parts being interchanged.

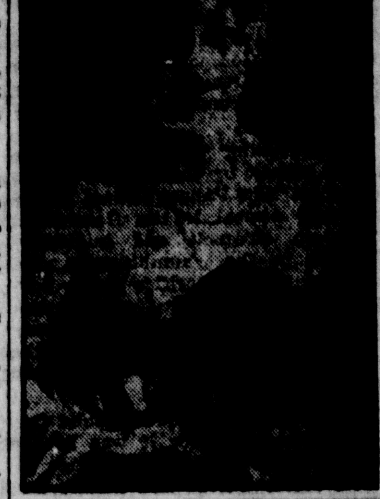

The fourth movement, come and Gypsy song, is a dramatic succession of five cadenzas, syncopated, rhythmical, typically gypsy music, employing ornamental cadenza themes, modulating into the fandango rhythm of the final movement, the tempo growing ever more furiously animated. In the finale, Fandango of the Asturias, there is repetition of the chief theme, with a variation in dance form for solo violin.

The dance continues with ever increasing fury, when the fandango suddenly changes to the Alborada of the first movement, closing with a brief Presto.

This Capriccio is of intricate technical nature and elaborate conception, and typifies the high standard of symphonic work demanded by Director Cianfoni for his programs.

Include Georgia Belle Walton, violin, and Dorothy Dula, piano. The concert will begin at 8, with community singing opening the program at 7:45, led by Ellis Rhodes.

SOLOIST Miss Georgia Belle Walton, violinist who will appear on the Music Week program this evening with the Santa Ana Symphony orchestra.

STATE W. C. T. U. HEADS TO HOLD MEETING HERE

Plans were perfected this afternoon at the regular meeting of the local W. C. T. U. at the First Methodist church, for the program that will be presented in this city by the visiting state W. C. T. U. team, headed by Mrs. Eva Craven Wheeler, state president of the organization. The local program will be held on Thursday at the First Methodist church. It will open in the morning at 10:00 a. m., and will include a session at 3:00 p. m., and one at 7:30 p. m. All sessions promise to be exceedingly interesting. A covered dish luncheon will be held at noon.

The program to be presented here Thursday, is a part of county wide Citizenship assemblies which opened at Orange on Saturday. "We expect to have matters discussed that will be of great interest to the community," said Mrs. Lee Warren, secretary of the local W. C. T. U. "Perhaps the most important one will be the political situation, when plans will be announced that are to be used all over the country for the defeat of any wet candidates."

Today the state team will hold assemblies at Fullerton at the Presbyterian church, Placentia joining with the Fullerton organization.

LOCAL COLLEGE PLANS COURSE IN STORE WORK

Junior college students as well as high school seniors are looking forward with interest to the opening of the new course, retail store management, which will be started in the Santa Ana Junior college next fall, according to McKee Fiske, dean of the college.

Fiske pointed out that the course is also arousing interest outside of the schools as the local college is the first junior college in the United States to give such a course.

He stated that only 20 pupils may enroll in the class for which a special instructor is to be provided. As there will be only a limited number admitted to the class it is advisable for students to enroll as early as possible, he said.

The course in retail store management has been planned during the past year by teachers at the school with a group of merchants and store managers acting in an advisory capacity.

Bruce Switzer, manager of Rankin's dry goods store, who aided in planning the class, declared that it has "great possibilities."

The individual who is taking the course will study at the junior college one week and during the next will work in a store for pay, thus receiving practical experience in addition to the theory, Mr. Switzer said.

Mrs. Emma Blancher followed with a few words of commendation on the co-operation of pupils and teachers, with this good work. The following are winners from the various grades: From the Lincoln building, fourth grade, first, Luis Pineda, second, Socorro Sepulveda; fifth grade, first, Jose Sepulveda, second, Ralph Perez; sixth grade, first, Caesar Diaz; second, Onnie Brockenbrough. Roosevelt building, fourth grade, first, Donalds Dollard, second, Ruby Armstrong, fifth grade, first, Monica Murakami, second, Miles White; sixth grade, first, Stanley Wilson, second, Earl Barnett; seventh grade, Winnifred Slater, second, Alice Stoner; eighth grade, first, Rora Daltridge, second, Pauline Flint.

The following is the program to be given Wednesday evening in the assembly room at the Roosevelt building at El Modena, after the community supper. The program is put on by the state team of the W. C. T. U.: A skit, "Modern Education," state team; community singing; debate, "Resolved: That the election of Al Smith or Jim Reed as president of the United States would be detrimental to the welfare of the nation;" reading.

Plans were perfected this afternoon at the regular meeting of the local W. C. T. U. at the First Methodist church, for the program that will be presented in this city by the visiting state W. C. T. U. team, headed by Mrs. Eva Craven Wheeler, state president of the organization. The local program will be held on Thursday at the First Methodist church. It will open in the morning at 10:00 a. m., and will include a session at 3:00 p. m., and one at 7:30 p. m. All sessions promise to be exceedingly interesting. A covered dish luncheon will be held at noon.

The program to be presented here Thursday, is a part of county wide Citizenship assemblies which opened at Orange on Saturday. "We expect to have matters discussed that will be of great interest to the community," said Mrs. Lee Warren, secretary of the local W. C. T. U. "Perhaps the most important one will be the political situation, when plans will be announced that are to be used all over the country for the defeat of any wet candidates."

Today the state team will hold assemblies at Fullerton at the Presbyterian church, Placentia joining with the Fullerton organization.

Price—Is it always the measure of Value?

IF AN ARTICLE, or group of articles, have great utility—or the possession of which bring satisfaction and happiness, then value is expressed in these terms and not so much as to price.

Home Furnishings have greater value than may be indicated by price alone. It is usually expected to receive years of usefulness, satisfaction and comfort from furnishings for the home. In order to gain these things it is necessary to consider materials and workmanship very carefully.

It is also necessary to consider the character and reputation of the store with whom you do business—honesty of advertising and representation of facts regarding merchandise, and absence of price jugglery.

At Chandler's you may find home furnishings which will meet the size of every purse—two stores—one which displays the less expensive furnishings; and the main store where selections from the better types of furniture may be made.

CITY COUNCIL APPROPRIATES $250 TO AID IN BATTLE FOR PASSAGE OF BOULDER DAM BILL

The city council last night appropriated $250 from the general fund to aid in the battle in Washington to put over Boulder dam legislation at this session.

The appropriation was made after R. B. Whitlock, of El Centro, representing the American Conservation club, presented the situation of the legislation at the present time. He asserted that Imperial Valley residents have thus far this year spent $80,000 in advancing the interest of the measure, and pointing out that the valley people have about gone the limit in supplying money, asked assistance from the city. He stated that he had been making similar appeals to other councils and organizations in the southland, and had been meeting with success.

Col. S. H. Finley, of this city, approved action by the council in making such a contribution, and pointed out that whatever is done at this session of congress on the Boulder dam legislation probably will be done within the next week or 10 days.

Otto Jacobs, attorney, representing merchants on West Fourth street protesting against monopolization of two parking stalls on West Fourth street by the city taxi, urged the council to come action that would relieve the situation complained of by the business men. The general complaint is that the taxi cause congestion of traffic when the cars are backed into the line of traffic and when cars halt in the street in front of the office to take on passengers. Jacobs also asserted that cars of the service are using three parking stalls, while the council had granted reservation of only two stalls. It was the opinion of Jacobs that the owners of the service could find a location where operation of the cars would not be as objectionable as in the present location.

Following recommendations of the planning commission, the council granted permission to the Union Oil company to move its service station from Broadway and First to Main and Cushman; authorized a change in zoning on Cypress avenue between McFadden and Oxford, to permit building of duplexes; granted permission to the Christian church for erection of an edifice on the northeast corner of McFadden and Orange, on condition that structure be set back 20 feet on Orange and 15 feet on McFadden; gave P. L. Briney permit to locate oil station on northeast corner of Seventeenth and Greenwood for five years; authorized change in zoning on North Broadway, between Sixth and Eighth, to permit business, the change being made to accommodate Dr. R. A. Cushman in plans for establishing his offices at 623 North Broadway.

Recommendation of the commission that proposed establishment of a 10-foot setback line on Washington avenue from Broadway to Grand, be changed to exclude the two blocks between Main and Broadway, was taken under advisement. The commission was asked to reconsider its action in denying application to change property at Sixth and Baker from the single residence to the apartments and duplex zone.

Resolutions were adopted declaring intention of the council order paving on Baker and Shelton from First to Fourth and on portions of Garney and Pine.

Approving a petition filed, the council directed the engineer to prepare plans and specifications for paving Western avenue, from First to Eighth street, with five-inch asphaltic concrete.

Application of P. E. Dooley for permission to organize and operate a merchant parole was referred to the chief of police.

John Luxembourg, fire chief, was appointed to represent the city at a meeting of fire chiefs of the state to be held at Sacramento on May 18.

INSTRUCTOR TEACHES BOYS HOW TO SWIM

The Y.M.C.A. Boys' Work committee, meeting Monday afternoon, canvassed a report that showed a tremendous amount of work done during the past month by the secretary, T. P. McKee, and his associates. Among the items reported was the annual swimming campaign, in which 80 boys were taught to swim, free of charge, the start of two baseball leagues with 11 teams, all playing on a regular schedule, five dinners and parties for boys, attended by over 200, with appropriate programs of entertainment and educational matters in each case, and all the regular gymnasium and lobby games and activities carried on as usual.

McKee reported the organization of seven new clubs for boys in connection with churches, and the prospect of several additional ones, being prompted by the church co-operative committee on boys' work. The members of this co-operative committee at present are C. E. Phillips, C. L. Chaffee, Walter J. Ferris, Lester W. Slaughter, Rev. R. W. Harlow, Cecil Mack, Rev. O. W. Reinus, John A. Henderson, Rev. Samuel Edgar, L. R. McMullen and Otto Schroeder.

Plans for the month of May as considered by the committee include a Friendly Indian "Powwow," a "Pioneer" Roundup, socials and parties for the boys, the meetings of leaders of boys' groups, and the promotion of attendance for the summer camps.

"These things are really reported on paper," said J. A. Cranston, chairman of the committee, "but we all know that they represent a great deal of work, most of which is done at the insistence of our boys' work secretary, McKee. The hundreds of boys that through our building each week are getting more than mere exercise and play. They are getting these and much more, all under the finest type of christian leadership, and the future will show the results of the service given by McKee and the men who serve with him on the various committees for the boys' department of our Y.M.C.A."

grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Shutt and Mr. Johnson joined the party later in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gardner entertained as week-end guests, three of Mrs. Gardner's nieces, Goldie and Hazel Benton, of Los Angeles, and Sally Benton, of Beverly Hills. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Gardner and family and their guests motored to Newport Beach, where they visited with the two other girls of the Benton family, Ruth and Reba, of Pomona, who were spending the week-end at the beach.

CONSTIPATION PREYS ON HEALTH

You can overcome it with ALL-BRAN

If you are troubled with constipation, read Mrs. Hogan's letter below. It came to us unsolicited—a message of relief to every sufferer:

February 12, 1927
"I want to tell you how much good your ALL-BRAN has done me. I surely can't be constipated. I have tried every kind of medicine and never in my whole life have been relieved until one of my friends told me to try bran. So I bought a box and read about your ALL-BRAN and thought I would see what it would do. I surely did help me. I never have without it in the house again."

Mrs. Joseph Hogan,
1235 Oak St., Topeka, Kansas.

Constipation is almost universal. The cause of more than forty diseases. Dismissed, aching backs, tired eyes, bad complexion, are only a few of its symptoms.

Guard against it. Start tomorrow eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal. Guaranteed. Doctors recommend it.

A healthful cereal. Serve ALL-BRAN with milk or cream—and add fruit or honey. Sprinkle it into soups. Use it in cooking. Sold by all grocers. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

IRVINE LIBEL SUIT BEFORE APPEAL COURT

Despite the fact that Superior Judge James L. Allen has refused to allow the transfer to Los Angeles of the $120,000 libel suit brought by James Irvine Jr. against the Los Angeles Examiner, courts in that city are to have a chance to pass a few remarks on the case, it was revealed today.

The district court of appeals is to be approached in the matter and will be asked to order the trial transferred to Los Angeles county, according to its attorneys here, Head, Wellington, Jacobs and Scovel.

Judge Allen yesterday approved a bill of exceptions presented by the defendant and the controversy is now awaiting to be assigned a place on the calendar of the higher court. Should the court of appeals deny the request the case will come back to superior court here for trial.

Irvine in his complaint, alleged that stories regarding his recent divorce trial, in the Los Angeles Examiner, were libelous.

SCHOOL NIGHT CONCERT WILL BE GIVEN TOMORROW EVENING AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

By FRANCES HUNT BEESON

Supervisor Music Santa Ana City Schools

"Music is God's best gift to man, the only art of heaven given to earth, the only art of earth that we take to heaven. But music, like all our gifts, is given us in the germ. It is for us to unfold and develop it by instruction and cultivation."

In the limited amount of time that we have, we try in the schools to give every child the use of his singing voice, to have him gain some measure of knowledge of music and to give him a sense of familiarity with some of the world's greater masterpieces.

The voice is the universal instrument. Everyone has a voice which he may usually learn to use to some extent. It is a great inspiration to sing in groups.

Children are also given free instruction on the various instruments in which they show particular talent and interest.

We also have a list of the world's masterpieces with which the children become familiar in the Music Appreciation lessons. These selections are by Beethoven, Schubert, MacDowell, and other outstanding composers.

The School Night concert of Music will be given on Wednesday night at 7:45 in the High School auditorium. Five hundred students from the music classes of the Frances H. Willard and Julia C. Lathrop Junior High schools will participate under the direction of Mrs. Frances Hunt Beeson, supervisor of music, and Miss Edith Cornell and Miss Maudie Schuman from Lathrop and Miss Esther Jean Davis. The combined orchestra from the two Junior High schools numbering 150 members under the direction of S. J. Mustel will play. The Lathrop students will present some scenes from former operettas which have been given at their school.

The Santa Ana Boys' Chorus numbering 100 boys which received so much favorable comment last year will sing three numbers. It is an inspiring sight to see and hear a big chorus singing together.

A new feature will be a big mixed chorus of 175 voices from the combined Glee Clubs of the two Junior High schools:

Following is the program:

1. March, Bennett; Village Chimes, Bennett; Orchestralogue, N. N.; combined orchestras from Willard and Lathrop Jr. High schools; S. J. Mustel, Director.

2. Matins, Teal; An Old Garden, Hope Temple; Lathrop School Song, Jeannette Roby, Solman; Lathrop Girls' Glee Club, Edith Cornell, Director.

3. Dream of the Bird's Return, Irish Folk Tune; Day Dreams, Hosner; Forest Dance, Targett; Willard Mixed Chorus, Esther Jean Davis, Director.

4. Annie Rooney, Old Tune; Old Folks at Home, Humoresque, Foster Dvorak; Oh Susanna, Foster; Lathrop Harmonica Band, Maxine Zelman, Director.

5. The Waltz, Schubert; The Skylark, Peel; My Spanish Guitar, College Song; Willard Seventh Grade Chorus, Esther Jean Davis, Director.

6. Song of the Sea, Lamb, Solman; On the Road to Mandalay, Kipling; Santa Ana Song, Clyde B. Tompkins; Santa Ana Boys' Chorus; Frances Hunt Beeson, Director.

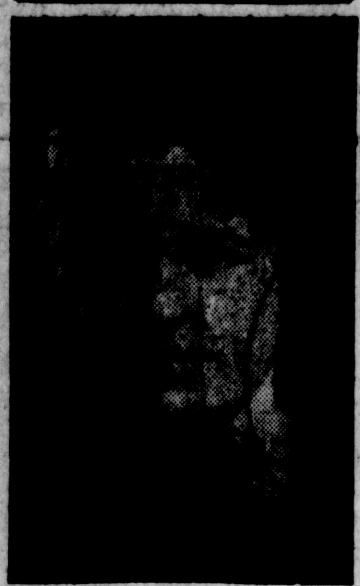

Intermission

7. Overture, "In the Land of the Missions"; Mustel; Hungarian Dance No. 5, Brahms; Polytechnic High School Orchestra; S. J. Mustel, Director.

8. Scenes from Former Operettas given at Lathrop: a. "The Gypsy Rover", Dodge; b. "Windmills of Holland", Carrington; c.

DIRECTS CHORUS

Frances Hunt Beeson, director of the Santa Ana Boys' chorus, which will sing three numbers tomorrow night at the high school auditorium, where the schools of this city will join in presenting the fourth music week program.

"Sylvia," Rhys-Morbert; Edith Cornell, Director.

9. Neapolitan Nights, Kar-Bamont; Hark! Hark! the Lark, Schubert; The Icicle, Bennett; Willard Girls' Glee Club, Esther Jean Davis, Director.

10. Hark I Hear a Voice, College Song; Roll Away, Tracy.

11. Venetian Song, Nevin; Al-lah's Holiday, Friml; Recessional, Kipling-Dekoven; combined Mixed Chorus from Willard and Lathrop Jr. High Schools; Frances Hunt Beeson, Director.

Brotherhood May Be Organized By Orange Churches

Orange, May 8.—Representatives of the California Federation of the Sons of the First Christian church in an effort to affiliate the men of the various Protestant churches of the city with the organization.

About 50 men were present and heard addresses by Judge Bush and J. C. Porter, of Los Angeles. Judge Bush related a number of his experiences in connection with his work in the juvenile court. He expressed the opinion that the boys who are termed delinquent are almost invariably made so by the fact that they have not had proper home training.

The work of the brotherhood was explained as having for its objective the uniting of the work of the men of the churches for community betterment.

No action was taken in regard to the forming such an organization in this city, the matter being referred to the Men's Bible class and it is to be brought before the members at their meeting Sunday morning at the Colonial theater.

C. I. F. BANS STATE PREP CHAMPIONSHIPS

Walter Hagen and Charley Paddock spent much of their time and a lot of producers' money making movies during the winter months. Their products are on the shelf awaiting the proper moment to be released.

Hagen, seeking some auspicious publicity to market his cinema child, went to England and got knocked out 18 and 17 by Archie Compston. It was one of the worst beatings a big golfer ever took and it was a worse beating for his film.

Movie men figure his producers didn't know you couldn't cut out a golf score like a suit of clothes or that they were asleep when they permitted Hagen to take such a gamble.

PADDOCK SELLS HIMSELF

Paddock, however, experienced in the ways of exploitation, mapped himself out a campaign of running and showing himself publicly in the east. Paddock always can make records by picking out trick distances that the other fellows don't run and he's darn good at standard distances.

In addition, Charley is making personal appearances in movie theaters to manufacture an audience for his films. And he seems to be getting away with the use of his reputation for ends other than his own amusement.

How can he get away with it when the amateur rule says no?

The answer seems to be simply in the answer that he does get away with it.

HOW ABOUT YOU?

The discussion attending the "personal appearance" tour of the theaters by Paddock and his frank way of doing it without having a penalty slapped on him recalls the story heard several years ago when the sprinter was on the carpet about the amateur rule. It was said at that time that he had something on several of the "important" high up in the A. A. U.

The important committee was behind locked doors considering Charley's case and Charley was seated in the outer hall waiting to be called.

"What are you going to say to them?" he was asked.

"I'll say anything about athletes getting money I'll just look a couple of those fellows in the eye and ask them to tell what they know about the amateur rule," he answered.

It was understood that one or more of the gentlemen considering his case had offered him money to compete in meets in which they were more than sportingly interested.

THE SINISTER FIGURE?

Getting back to the beating that Hagen took in England, an interesting incident is reported from the other side.

After the second morning round in which he was hopelessly beaten, Hagen wanted to quit.

"You win, Archie, take the dough," Hagen said graciously.

But the gamblers who were betting on the Hags demanded a run for their money and he had to continue until it was impossible mathematically for him to win.

GOOD LISTENING BUT—

Eddie Roush recently said it was all the bunk that he became a left-handed thrower because he broke his right arm and had to throw with something. Previously that Roush legend had been one of the favorite themes for preachers illustrating the moral "Stick to it."

"There were no gloves for the right hand in town," Roush explained.

Joe Ray recently denied the story that his shoes had to be cut off of him after the Boston marathon and it has long been known among newspapermen that a Chicago writer gassed the line of the little urchin to Joe Jackson—"Say it ain't so, Joe."

THEY SAY THAT

The major league pitchers are doing all kinds of doctoring of the ball. Charley Robertson was found with glue in his glove. . . . They're trying to catch Dazzy Vance, too. . . . The Penn relays lost $40,000. . . . Bad weather has also cost the Giants and the Yankees about $100,000 each. . . . The Boston Red Sox let kids in for two-bits. . . . Babe Ruth is choking the bat after two strikes. . . . Gene Sarazen picks Archie Compston to win the British open. . . . Merle Claypool Settlement is a pitcher for the Boston Red Sox. . . . Smart guys say Stanford is sure to win the intercollegiate track and field championship again. . . . The Babe is eating again.

HAL COX AGAIN FEATURES BOUT CARD AT DELHI

By RINGSIDER

Nothing if not consistent, Boyd Ellis, the Tex Rickard of Santa Ana, has matched his favorite main event to headline tomorrow night's card at the Delhi scrambled eat partry.

Hal Cox, who has appeared in something like 10 of Ellis' last 14 shows, will officiate again in this week's main event and although the Los Angeles dry cleaner has worn out his pugilistic welcome with some of the home guard, he is still able to attract the bulk of the "associate membership," and after all that is what counts.

Eddie Plough, who may not be as bad as his name, will be Hal's enemy. Plough is supposed to be a rough and ready amateur from the Main Street Athletic club, center of the weekly night leather pushing cards in Los Angeles, and he will have a whole arm of his brethren on the same cards. In fact Ellis might term Wednesday night's program "South Main Street Night," and he wouldn't be

ATHLETICS AND YANKEES CLASS OF A. L. CHASE

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, May 8.—Fresh troops out of the West—the Cleveland Indians and the St. Louis Browns—were outside Yankee stadium and Shibe park today in preparation for a direct offensive on the New York Yanks and the Philadelphia Athletics, who have just finished spilling the Chicago White Sox and the Detroit Tigers in the first spring inter-sectional drive along the American league front.

From St. Louis to Boston and from Chicago to Washington the baseball battle cry is "Stop the Yankees! Halt the Athletics!"

Slowly but surely, however, the American league race seems to be dwindling down to a two-fisted battle between the Yanks and Athletics, who appear to have too much strength at all points for the other teams.

The Yanks and Athletics are slipping away from their rivals, only the Indians and

Jurado Leads British Open Qualifying

AMERICAN PRO STARS SURVIVE PRELIMINARIES

By ROBERT C. DOWSON

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SANDWICH, Eng., May 8.—Between the vaunted American and British golfers battling for qualifying honors in the Open championship, a lithe, diminutive Argentine player, Jose Jurado, stepped in today to lead the entire field.

Equalling the professional record for the St. George's course, on his second qualifying round with a brilliant 69, Jurado had an aggregate of 144 for 36 holes.

Bill Mehlhorn, American pro, who led the field on the opening day, fell back today, taking an 83 on the more difficult Prince's course for an aggregate of 154.

Leading Pro's Quality

Other Americans, Gene Sarazen, Walter Hagen and Jim Barnes, passed "Wild Bill," but all the leading professionals from the United States were safely within the qualifying limits.

Eight Americans qualified among the 113 survivors who had scores of 163 or better for the two qualifying rounds.

Larry Nabholz, Chicago, pro, and two American amateurs, Silas Newton and Josh Crane, of Boston, were eliminated.

Hagen, Sarazen, Mehlhorn, Barnes, Armour, Bob Stupples of Chicago; Douglas Grant, expatriate amateur, and John McHugh, young San Francisco amateur, all qualified and will take part in the championship proper tomorrow.

British Stars Eclipsed

The British stars were eclipsed today. H. C. Jolley had an aggregate of 147; Bert Hodson, the Welsh pro champion 148, and W. H. Davies, hard hitting youngster, 151.

Archie Compston, who defeated Walter Hagen at Moor Park, did the best of the better known British golfers, tying with "Sir Walter" at 153.

Abe Mitchell added a 77 to that of yesterday for an aggregate of 154. Harry Vardon, veteran who has won the title five times, and Roger Wethered, former amateur champion, were tied at 159. Tommy Armour was safely in with 154.

COCHENS, WEBB TOP DOUBLES AT P.C.B.C.

Bowling in rare form and assisted by a whale of a second game, Eddie Cochens and C. A. Webb, Santa Ana doubles team, swept into first place in the 160-169 class of the tournament of the Pacific Coast Bowling Congress, now being held at the Dome alleys, Ocean Park.

The Cochens-Webb card Sunday read as follows:

	1st	2nd	3rd	Totals
Cochens	189	248	157	594
Webb	184	204	170	558
Totals	373	447	327	1147

The tourney still has three weeks to run but the mark of the local pair looks good enough to stand. Many other local trundlers, including four five-man squads, will try their luck on the Ocean Park drives within the next two weeks.

'Red' Uhlan Loses Bout In New York

CHICAGO, May 8.—George Courtney, New York middleweight contender, defeated "Red" Uhlan, of California, in 10 rounds here last night.

ENGLISH GOLFERS HOPE FOR BETTER THINGS THIS YEAR

British golf, reduced to despair by six American victories in the last seven Open championships, has been invigorated by the great hope that this year the cup will return to its native soil. The last British victory was scored in 1923 by Arthur Havers. The hope of something better in 1935 was born when Bobby Jones announced he would not defend the championship he won for the second time last year and the hope flamed when Walter Hagen, ace of the seven American invaders, was given a terrific beating by Archie Compston. Below are some of the foremost entrants in the tournament for which qualifying was completed today.

AUTO CLUBMEN WIN FOURTH IN TWILIGHT LOOP

The Auto Club of Orange County appeared well on its way today toward making as much of a one-sided spectacle of the Santa Ana Twilight league race as the United Presbyterian Hill-Clubbers did last summer.

Everett Berry, the chunky submariner who twirled the champions to a title with only one defeat in something like 14 games last season, gunned the Auto Club

GOING GREAT FOR BUFFALO

Nick Cullop, who has tried several times to make the grade as a major league, is playing a great game for Buffalo in the International League. He goes great in the minor-but always slips when trying for a big league team.

McTIGUE FAVORITE OVER WILLIS TONIGHT

LOS ANGELES, May 8.—Experience has made the veteran Mike McTigue the favorite to defeat "Cowboy Jack" Willis in their 10-round bout at the Olympic auditorium tonight.

McTigue got a draw against Armando Emanuel in San Francisco recently. Emanuel is a boxer, but Willis is a slugger. The cowboy figures his right hand will enable him to score a knockout. However, McTigue has faced all types of opponents in his long and varied career. He is ring wise and knows all the tricks. He, too, has shown a knockout punch. Paul Berlenbach went down when McTigue hit him.

McTigue has fought the top notchers. He battled Jack Delaney, Jack Sharkey, young Stribling, Battling Siki, Johnny Risko, Berlenbach and numerous others. Willis, too, has fought some good boys in Collins, Walker and Lomski.

RED SOX SIGN SCHOOLBOY

The Boston Red Sox are picking them young. One of their latest rookies is Robert Ashjornson, 18-year-old boy of Concord, Mass., who starred as a catcher for his high school team.

TRACK IS ONLY SPORT OPEN TO ALL DISTRICTS

Elimination of all state finals in high school athletics in California, with the exception of the annual state track and field meet, has been voted by the California Interscholastic federation, ruling board of prep athletics, it was learned here today.

Hereafter competition among the schools will be restricted to four sections of the state—Southern district, Central California, Northern California and San Francisco bay region.

Finals in baseball had already been abandoned by the C. I. F. and the ruling eliminates finals in football, basketball and tennis, effective next fall. The reason given was that the playoffs carried the sports out of season because of the large number of schools participating in C. I. F. athletics now.

The board also reaffirmed its stand against sending winners in the final state track and field meet to the national interscholastic track meet in Chicago each year.

Los Angeles was awarded the 1935 state track and field meet. Berkeley was scheduled to be awarded the meet, but in order to boost the move under way to bring the 1935 Olympics to Los Angeles, the board decided to give the 1935 meet to Southern California. The 1935 State meet also will be held in Los Angeles, it was decided.

N. P. Nielsen, chief of the state division of physical education, was made a member of the executive board.

DEMPSEY BELIEVES HEENEY HAS CHANCE

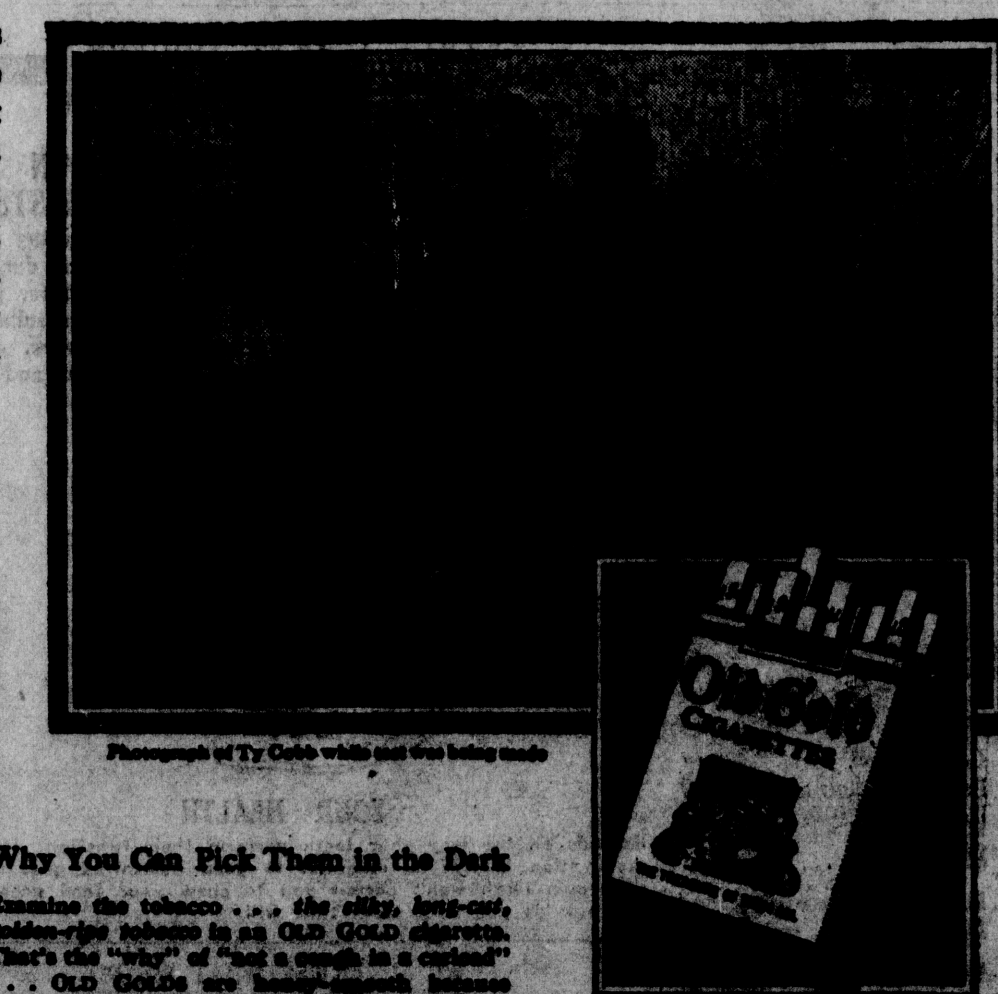

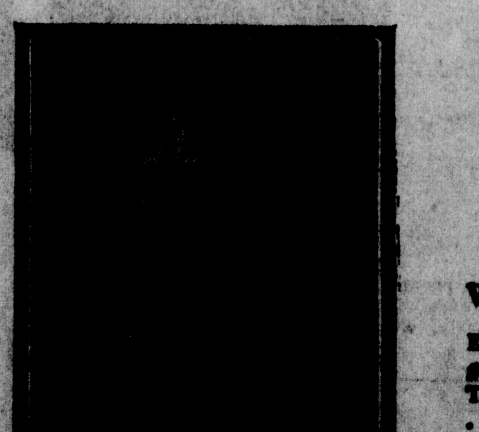

CHICAGO, May 8.—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion, believes Tom Heenev, Australian contender for Gene Tunney's crown, has "an excellent chance" of knocking out the champion.

"He will give Tunney a good fight," Dempsey predicted here last night.

Blindfolded in scientific test of leading Cigarettes, Ty Cobb selects Old Gold

"Taking the blindfold test is like standing up to bat before a strange pitcher. You can't hit all his throws but there is usually one you can connect with. When I hit OLD GOLD, I knew that I had struck a homer. For it 'clicked' immediately with my taste and throat."

WATCH HAGEN SARAZEN'S TIP FROM BRITAIN

By GENE SARAZEN
SANDWICH, Eng., May 8.—"Watch Hagen."

The advice given so often in an American championship applies pertinently to the present play for the British Open title.

As we set out today, all hopeful of qualifying for the deciding rounds, I want to call attention to the excellence of Hagen's play in the opening round.

Walter has found himself, after his recent defeat by Archie Compston, and as an American I am very proud of his performance Monday.

It was cold and a terrific wind swept in from Sandwich bay when "The Hags" went around late in the afternoon. He had a bad break in the matter of time but his golf proved that he is still there.

Bill Melhorn, with whom I was partnered, played "scrappy" golf although he led the field. Bill had to fight for what he got.

I think 160 will qualify, certainly, and with my 77 I am hopeful of getting in. I will feel a lot better about dinner time tonight, however, provided I have shot an 80 or better.

They are managing the championship wonderfully here at Sandwich. The crowd seems to appreciate tournament golf and is orderly as well as enthusiastic.

Tommy Armour, I fear, may have tired himself out, but we can look for better golf from him today and in the championship proper.

And don't forget young Johnny McHugh of San Francisco who yesterday shot a beautiful 77 over the Prince's course yesterday, which is good enough for any man's bag. But—"Watch Hagen!"

WANTTINEN AND REA QUIT PYLE 'DERBY'

MISHAWAKA, Ind., May 8.—Rested from the most grueling lap in the Pyle cross-country runners left here today on a 40-mile race to Ligonier, Ind.

Louis Perella, of Albany, yesterday's 64.3 mile run from Gary to the longest since the runners left Los Angeles—in 9:30:42.

John Peter Gavuzzi, of Southampton, Eng., was second; Andrew Payne, Claremore, Okla., and Philip Granville tied for third place.

Olli Wanttinen, of New York, and Harry Rea, Long Beach, Calif., withdrew from the race today. Neither gave reasons for so doing. Their withdrawal left 69 runners.

How Much Water Should Baby Get?

A Famous Authority's Rule

By Ruth Bateman

Baby specialists agree nowadays, that during the first six months, babies must have three ounces of fluid per pound of body weight daily. An eight pound baby, for instance, needs twenty-four ounces of fluid. Later on the rule is two ounces of fluid per pound of body weight. The amount of fluid absorbed by a breast fed baby is best determined by weighing him before and after feeding. For those and other ills of babies and children such as colic, cholera, diarrhea, gas on stomach and bowels, constipation, sour stomach, low of sleep, and underweight, leading physicians say there's nothing so effective. It is purely vegetable—the recipe is on the wrapper—and millions of mothers have depended on it in over thirty years of ever increasing use. It regulates baby bowels, makes him sleep and eat right, enables him to get full nourishment from his food, so he increases in weight as he should. With each package you get a book on Motherhood worth its weight in gold.

Just a word of caution. Look for the signature on the package so you'll be sure to get the genuine. The forty best bottles contain thirty-five doses—Adv.

SUCCESS AT 17

Set in the first week, the youngster still has his baseball career and the Pacific Coast League always has a youngster or two to interest the major leagues. Among the young fellows already attracting attention this season is Frank Crosetti, a 17-year-old high school boy, playing infield for the San Francisco Seals. He is already talked for fast company.

As we set out today, all hopeful of qualifying for the deciding rounds, I want to call attention to the excellence of Hagen's play in the opening round.

ATHLETICS, YANKEES CLASS OF LEAGUE

Brown showing a tendency to date tonight back. New York is four games ahead of St. Louis, in fourth place, and two ahead of Cleveland, in third place.

Interest in the National League pennant race continues to soar with six clubs edging their way into the race. In contrast to the American league, only two National League clubs—the Phillies and Braves—appear, at this point, to fall short of pennant possibilities.

The New York Giants, still clinging to the slender lead over the Cincinnati Reds, moved to Pittsburgh for another important series.

The Brooklyn Robins, tied with the Pirates for third place, open another important series with the Chicago Cubs after having gained an even break with the Cardinals in four games.

The Cubs, with three straight victories are coming fast and are tied with the Cardinals for fifth place.

very wrong.

Mexican Joe, a welterweight, boxes the popular Jimmie Rivera, of Anaheim, in the semi-windup. Mexican Joe is one of the Main street representatives.

Delhi will offer a special event of more than passing interest in the Charley Collins-Zenayda Chavez spot. Collins is an Orange county youngster with plenty of promise while Chavez is the Santa Ana lad whom the veteran Kid Mexico of Huntington Beach has been nursing along with the expectation of converting him into a big show asset soon. Chavez won something like seven bouts in succession at Huntington Beach before he was knocked off recently.

Bobby Turner, from the South Main street club, draws the rugged Louis Wilson, colored kyo artist, in another important introductory shot.

The first two preliminaries will usher in Jack O'Brien, Main street club, against Jack White of San Bernardino, and Ascencio Hernandez, of Anaheim, and Jack Cooper, a lightweight from Los Angeles.

SPORTSMATTERS

By FRANK GETTY
UNITED PRESS ASSOCIATES

The extraordinary welcome accorded the return of baseball to Montreal with the opening of the new international league park there will be remembered as the outstanding event of the 1928 season.

While George Stallings was driving the team to play winning ball, Walter Hagedorn was urging on the masses, the supporters and the followers in mud and sand who were laboring to get the new park ready. A week ago, one would have insisted there was no chance of it being finished by May 2, the date of the opening. But while the Royals were hustling to win ball games, the builders back home in Montreal were hustling to be ready for the club upon its arrival, and the thing was accomplished.

The enthusiasm with which the good folk of Montreal greeted their ball club indicates that the national pastime of the United States is practically certain to prove a success across the border. The Montreal Royals undoubtedly will join the Toronto Maple Leafs in assisting to make it so.

Canada sent us her national game a little while ago, and as a professional sport hockey now is nearing the crest of popularity in our own country.

The National hockey league games were played to capacity houses for the most part, and the success of the New York Rangers in bringing away the Stanley Cup is certain to increase interest in hockey in the United States next season.

It may be that the Montreal Royals will walk away with the international league pennant, thus paying us back in our own coin. The club has a chance of doing so, with Stallings at the helm. While a number of international League teams look stronger than the Royals at the present writing, no one who remembers the baseball season of 1921 will consider Montreal out of the race.

That was the year when Stallings took the tall-and-son National league club by the back of the neck about mid-season and hustled it from last place to first so rapidly that no one believed him human.

"It's a miracle," the fans insisted, and Stallings became the original "Miracle Man" of baseball. And when his Braves went out and slaughtered the famed Athletics in four straight games in the world series, well, it seemed just too good to be true.

Considerable credit for the "miracle" must be given, of course, to Dick Rudolph and the other Boston pitchers, but Stallings developed them, and it is certain they weren't winning in the spring of that year.

The upstart rush of the Boston club did not get under way until July. Boston fans had hoped that this year's club, with the addition of Rogers Hornsby, Lester Bell and considerable pitching strength, might follow the example of the Braves of 1914. It may yet do so, but thus far it has failed to strike the stride.

TUSTIN BOARD TAKES CHARGE OF FIRE TRUCK

TUSTIN, May 8.—The fire department here will be under the control of the city in the future, it was decided at the regular meeting of the city council last night. The taking over of the fire department followed several weeks of investigation by the city officials. The apparatus, consisting of a chemical truck, hose and other equipment, was purchased by the chamber of commerce through public subscription.

The department has been housed in a small shed in Tustin. The councilmen decided that by taking over the engine and appointing a fire chief and an assistant the equipment could be kept in working condition. The fire chief and his assistant probably will be named at the next meeting of the city council.

The city will not purchase any additional equipment at present and will not build a new fire hall, it was decided by the councilmen. The taking over of the department was the most important action of the council during the evening. Several other matters were discussed but no action was taken.

J. K. Smith, veteran local fisherman, is operating a large fishing barge off the Newport coast and has a smaller barge which he will place in operation this summer. Reports are current to the effect that the two brothers will place a barge off Balboa.

TODAY'S Horoscope

MAY 8, 1928

Virgo, the zodiacal sign of the Bowels, looks with favor upon people with lots of nerve today, if you know what we mean—that particular kind of fortitude ascribed to those who do not cave in at the breadbasket very readily. It's a good day to take a chance. However, if you feel that you must play safe, you know where to come for the day's purchases in Hardware, Housewares, China, Gifts, etc.—modesty forbids mentioning the name of the place.

CITRUS GROWERS, OFFICIALS DISCUSS ORANGE PROSPECTS: MARKET CONDITIONS CITED

ORANGE, May 8.—With an attendance of 106 citrus growers, directors, heads of exchange departments and packing house managers met here last night at the American Legion hall for a 6:30 o'clock banquet and discussion of the problems that confront growers and exchange men at the beginning of the Valencia season.

Willard Smith, of Villa Park, was the chairman of the meeting and the program was arranged by J. Clyde Slater.

In an explanation of the methods employed in the box making factory F. B. Hutchins, manager of the Fruit Growers' Supply company, outlined briefly some of the problems encountered by the lumbering concerns of the state and neighboring states during the past few years. From 1909 to 1909 men are employed the year around at the box making plant, it was disclosed.

Hutchins deplored the fact that the lumbermen did not have an association developed along similar lines as the orange growers' associations. By this means he thought over production could be eliminated and a more stable market established.

Dana C. King, head of the sales department of the California Fruit Growers' exchange, spoke on market conditions and what the growers may expect from the 1928 Valencia crop. The only accurate way to predict the crop, he said, was for the 400 growers to count their oranges. This year, he declared, a 75 to 80 per cent crop would be harvested.

The present year has been a favorable one for oranges with more cars shipped the first of May than at any previous time, he said. Advertising the oranges, he declared, costs about five cents a box.

The Valencia this year, he thought, would not quite equal that of last year in color and quality. Last year's crop, he said, was of an unusually fine quality. King predicted a very satisfactory season as a whole and spoke of the condition of the deciduous fruits of the nation which, he said, were rivals of the Valencia.

ANAHEIM PECTIN PLANT REMODELED

ANAHEIM, May 8.—Work of remodeling the former Sperry Flour company warehouse on South Atchison street as a citrus by-products plant is now being carried out by the newly formed Mutual Citrus Products company.

H. T. Leo, president of the new concern, C. C. Taylor, secretary, and Fred Beck, superintendent, are directing the remodeling work and preparing plans for installing approximately $50,000 worth of machinery.

Meanwhile contracts are being signed with lemon growers of the district for a supply of this fruit from which pectin, a much used citrus by-product, will be made as the first manufacturing venture of the new firm. Actual manufacturing operations are not expected to commence for three or four months as it will require at least that length of time to install all the necessary machinery, Leo stated this morning.

The warehouse building, in which the new plant is to be established, was recently purchased by the company and is of up-to-date construction.

According to preliminary plans announced by the company, 12 men are expected to be employed when the manufacturing operations are begun with more to be added to the payroll as the business develops.

DREDGE MAKES WIDE NEWPORT BAY ENTRANCE

NEWPORT BEACH, May 8.—A channel having a minimum depth at low tide of eight feet and a minimum width of 100 feet has been dredged at the entrance to Newport bay, it was reported here today by J. A. Beck, chairman of the harbor committee of 15. The Sparks and McClelland dredger, which has been working at the harbor entrance for some time, is now working on the sand bar in the center of the channel.

The dredge is cutting away the sand to a depth of 15 feet at this point and is making a course several hundred feet wide. The harbor committee is continuing the dredging work with money raised by public subscription.

When the dredging work was started a few weeks ago the channel had a minimum depth of four feet, according to Beck.

One of the beneficial results of the dredging work has been the building of a beach in front of the rock revetments which were placed along the peninsula. The dredged material is pumped into the ocean west of the west jetty and this has resulted in the building of a sandy beach in front of the rocks. Formerly the waves were dashing against the rocks and frequently spraying over the top.

It is planned to continue the dredging work as long as possible, in the hope of permanently opening the channel for large yachts and fishing boats.

LIDO ISLE MAP APPROVED BY NEWPORT BEACH COUNCILMEN; ASSISTANT ENGINEER NAMED

NEWPORT BEACH, May 8.—City councilmen last night approved the tentative development map of Lido Isle. Approval of the map was given after representatives had promised to secure the paving of 20-foot streets to a width of 24 feet and the approval of the council was given only on condition that this be carried out. Final maps of the island will be made immediately and will be presented to the city officials for the stamp of approval.

The approval of the island map, and the appointment of J. A. Seigel to the position of assistant city engineer were the two major business items of the evening. Seigel will receive a salary of $200 per month. His appointment was recommended by R. L. Patterson, city engineer.

Dr. Herman Hilmer was the one member of the council who opposed the approval of the Lido Isle development map. Hilmer declared that he bases his disapproval on the fact that the map had not met with the approval of Gordon Whittall, city planning expert. Whittall wished streets made 42 feet in width and alleys and side streets 34 feet in width, Hilmer stated.

Considerable discussion was held on the matter before approval finally was given. It was shown that wide streets would take up too much of the island property.

John P. Elsbach, developer of the island, was granted permission by the city to build a landing pier at the eastern end of the island.

Other matters taken up by the council were minor affairs. A letter protesting against asserted indecencies on the beach at Corona Del Mar was referred to the police commission and the chief of police for action. Capt. G. W. Sheffield made the complaint.

A complaint about the condition of the city septic tank was made by Stuart A. Cundiff, water and sewer superintendent. The matter was referred to the city engineer. Notices of hearings on the laying of a telephone cable across the bay and of a hearing of the Pacific Coast Motor Coach company and the Pickwick Stage company were read to the council. The stage hearings are to be held at the city hall May 17.

A report on the condition of the harbor entrance was made by J. A. Beck, chairman of the harbor committee.

BUSTER KEATON FILM WILL BE MADE ON BAY

NEWPORT BEACH, May 8.—Buster Keaton, stone faced comedian, will be the star in a picture to be filmed on the bay this week by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer company.

Keaton has taken several pictures on the bay, filming part of "College" on the bay at Balboa. During the past week Bebe Daniels and Neil Hamilton have been on location in the harbor district and many other motion picture stars have been filmed in the harbor district during the past few months.

The name of the new Keaton picture could not be learned here today but it was reported by advance agents that a cast of about 500 persons would be used in the filming of the production.

All the canoes and power boats owned and operated by the Newport Bay Investment company have been reserved for the making of the picture, it was reported today by J. P. Greeley, owner.

The speaker of the evening was Dr. J. W. Needles, formerly of the Deener institute at Kansas City, but now of Los Angeles. Dr. Needles had as his subject, "Bitetchnic." The talk was illustrated with lantern slides. A clinic was held and a patient present was used to demonstrate the principles of the subject under discussion.

The talk was given in the I. O. O. F. hall following the 6:30 o'clock dinner. Dr. John E. Waters, of Anaheim, is the president of the association.

ELABOR VOLUME EIGHT

The WOMAN'S DAY

Two sisters, girls of 25 and 18, drowned themselves in a mill sluice the other day. Both girls were engaged to be married to two brothers. They died on the very day the older one was to be married. The younger girl was to be a mother, and the father of the child was not her fiancé. The grief-stricken parents explain the double suicide as the insistence of the older girl, who had always mothered the younger, to share her tragedy with her.

SISTERLY LOVE

It is only a few days ago that two sisters, older women, committed suicide in a common grief over the death of their mother. The very rarity of such sisterly unity makes us conscious of the rapid diminishing of affection in this relationship. Sister and sister or brother and brother harmony is rather rare in this day of individualism. Such stories make one refer the change to that of a day when one sister always dressed like another, refused to marry if her sister's love affair went wrong, or, as in these cases, entered complete despair together.

RAZZBERRIES!

The famous D. A. R. blacklist strikes me as one of the silliest, if not the silliest, of all things ever done by organized women. It simply amounts to a listing of the names of everyone who does not think exactly as do the D. A. R.'s. The very presence of such names as President Mary Woolley of Mt. Holyoke College, Clarence Darrow, William Allen White and others, is guarantee in itself of the silliness of the charges. Carrie Chapman Catt'll have to quit 'em off again. She did a dandy job once before with her hair brush and knee.

LADY FLIER

Even though the sea has swallowed up Mildred Doran, Frances Grayson, Lady Elsie Mackay and the Princess Wertheim, any number of women are begging for the chance to go as passengers across the Atlantic this summer. So low a price do they put upon their lives that they don't seem to give a hang who their pilot is nor how trustworthy the plane.

An English aviator recently advertised for a man and woman passenger on his contemplated transatlantic flight. He merely gave a box number and nearly 300 women answered, begging for first chance as passengers. Most of the writers were actresses or singers. One discounts the sincerity of their bids on the grounds of publicity. But how about the rest of the women? Does it mean that our quest of thrills makes us take even danger and scoff at death?

NOVEL ENSEMBLE

A striking ensemble uses a silver gray silk printed infrequently in dollar-size black satin dots to top a black satin frock with silver dots embroidered on its neck, belt and cuffs.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY BAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KNOX

The milk had turned to butter, quick. "Oh, look," cried Scouty, "this is slick. It's nice and rich and yellow, and it's good enough to eat. Come on now, lads, let's scoop it up and give some to each butterfly." And, as they filled the buttercups, the flowers said, "What a treat!"

"This butter is the first we've had. No wonder we are feeling glad. And now that we are filled, we'll have to leave you right away. Down to the garden we must race and promptly hop into our place. Before the day is over we'll be in a big bouquet."

And then they scampered out of sight. "Say, hark," said Scouty Tinymite. "I'm sure I heard a tiny voice right down here by my feet. Why, it's a violet I see, and it is looking up at me. My goodness, but it's little face of purple looks real sweet."

"Oh, there are lots of us down here," the little flower replied. "Oh, dear, we're always buried in the leaves, which makes us hard to find. We wish you lads would have a hunch to pick us all in one large bunch. If you would just do that for us, we'd think you very kind."

And then a little girl came near. Said she, "I'm mighty glad I'm here. Please do just as the violet says, and give them all to me. This is slick. It's nice and rich and yellow, and it's good enough to eat. Come on now, lads, let's scoop it up and give some to each butterfly." And, as they filled the buttercups, the flowers said, "What a treat!"

MENUS for the Family

BY SISTER MARY

BREAKFAST—Stewed dried apricots, cereal, cream, bread crumbs, pancakes, maple syrup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—English monkey, radishes and onions, rye bread, orange blanc mange, milk, tea.

DINNER—Chicken loaf, minted carrots and peas, glass sweet potatoes, tomato and green pepper salad, rhubarb sherbet, milk, coffee.

Keep in mind the trick of using carrots to stretch more expensive vegetables. They are particularly good with green peas and should be cut in neat dice about the same size and the peas.

Rhubarb sherbet is delicious and refreshing after a hearty dinner.

Rhubarb Sherbet

Two pounds rhubarb, 1 lemon, 1-2 cup sugar, 1-2 cup seedless raisins, 1 tablespoon gelatine, 1-4 cup cold water.

Wash and peel rhubarb and cut into inch lengths. Cook in just enough water to prevent burning until tender. Add sugar and rub through a colander. Drop raisins in boiling water to cover for thirty minutes. Add raisins and lemon juice to rhubarb puree and return to the fire. Bring to the boiling point and add gelatine softened for five minutes in cold water. Remove at once from the fire and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Let cool and pour into mold of ice cream freezer. Pack in four parts ice to one part ice cream salt and let stand two hours or longer.

BREA, May 8.—Ted McGrew, proprietor of the Up-to-Date cigar stand, has completed the removal of his fixtures and stock to the vacant room in the Brea garage building, formerly occupied by Massey and Blystone, contractors.

The move was made necessary because of the removal of the old garage building one door south of the post office to make room for the new store building being erected there by the Brea Investment company. When the new building is complete, McGrew will be located at his old stand.

Letters are being received in Brea from Mrs. George Friend and her mother, Mrs. Lottie Hume, who called on April 16 via the Panama canal for a visit in New York and other eastern points. Mrs. Friend and her mother expect to be away about three months and will visit relatives in New York state as well as see many points of interest, including Washington, D. C.
